

REFLECTION GUIDE

After listening to Let's Talk Mentoring (More Than Mentoring, Part 1), consider the following questions on your own or with a professional learning community.

Take a moment to reconnect to what led you to the work you do now. How do you stay connected with your why and how do you continue to work toward your goals?

A large, stylized blue number '1' with a brushstroke texture, positioned on the right side of the first reflection box.

How might teachers of all experience levels at your site benefit from instructional mentoring?

A large, stylized blue number '2' with a brushstroke texture, positioned on the left side of the second reflection box.

As you think about the role of an instructional mentor, what qualities do you think are most important for a mentor to possess?

A large, stylized blue number '3' with a brushstroke texture, positioned on the right side of the third reflection box.

In what ways are you continuing to reflect on your professional potential and grow your skills and knowledge connected to your professional expertise?

A large, stylized blue number '4' with a brushstroke texture, positioned on the left side of the fourth reflection box.

How do you envision mentoring strengthening your workplace? What steps can you take to make this vision a reality?

A large, stylized blue number '5' with a brushstroke texture, positioned on the right side of the fifth reflection box.