

REFLECTION GUIDE

After listening to Mentoring for Different Learning Needs with Dr. Andy Kahn (More Than Mentoring, Part 3), consider the following questions on your own or with a professional learning community.

What are some things that you learned about creating an environment that supports diverse learning needs?

1

What might you incorporate into your practice to ensure all students have the opportunity to thrive? How has this podcast inspired you to be more curious about finding new and innovative ways to create spaces where all students have the opportunity to thrive?

2

In what ways might you look at your practice through the lens of Universal Design of Learning and think about how you are creating content for the learners or mentees you support?

3

In what ways will you continue to strengthen your educational design to better serve students with autism, ADD, ADHD, and other learning differences?

4

How do you envision mentoring strengthening your workplace? What steps can you take to make this vision a reality?
